

Call for “Special Session”

International Symposium on Remote Sensing (ISRS) 2023 & Unmanned Aerial Vehicles in Geomatics (UAV-g) 2023

On behalf of the KSRS, RSSJ, and CSPRS and the ISRS 2023 & UAV-g 2023 Organizing Committee, we are pleased to invite you to the ISRS 2023 & UAV-g 2023. The annual symposium, ISRS is recognized as a unique event for East Asian remote sensing communities. The ISRS 2023 & UAV-g 2023 will be held “In Person”. For a productive and exciting experience during ISRS 2023 & UAV-g 2023, we plan to provide the opportunity to have Special Sessions to remote sensing and UAV related organizations under the following conditions:

- One session is about 80 minutes
- Fee for one session is 1500 US$ plus some donation if possible
- The organizer of Special Session is requested to inform us of following information via (ksrs@ksrs.or.kr) by February 10, 2023.
 - The list of presentations including the title, presenters' name(s), affiliations
- In case that presenters wish to publish in ISRS2023 & UAV-g 2023 proceedings, each presenter is requested to submit his/her extended abstract or full paper to ISRS2023 & UAV-g 2023 homepage (<https://isrs.or.kr>) before March 10, 2023.
- Participants of the Special Session must register to ISRS 2023 & UAV-g 2023 with the same registration fee as ordinary participants of ISRS2023 & UAV-g 2023.

We cordially invite your organization to plan Special Session in ISRS2023 & UAV-g 2023. In case you apply, please submit the application form by February 10, 2023 to the Korean Society of Remote Sensing (ksrs@ksrs.or.kr) .
